

“Allow Me to Introduce Myself” — Small Group Discussion Guide
Exodus 7:8-12:42

1. The sermon suggested that it's more helpful to call these "signs and wonders" than "plagues". How does this redefinition affect the way you view these events?
2. Moses and Aaron continually obeyed God, yet Pharaoh and his officials were resistive no matter what they saw. When God asks something of you, which posture do you take?
3. The whole point of the signs was "so that you may know that I am the Lord" — not just facts about Him, but really knowing Him. Does your relationship with God feel more like knowing facts about Him, or actually knowing Him personally?
4. The sermon named a few things the signs reveal about God:
 - He alone is God
 - He is sovereign
 - He judges sin
 - He is merciful.

Which of these feels most true in your life right now, and which one do you need to be reminded of?

5. Signs aren't neutral — they call for a response. Psalm 105 recounts the signs and wonders of the Exodus (verses 23-54). This Psalm also reminds us that these signs serve a purpose and call for response: praise, proclamation, seeking His face, and remembrance. What's one specific way you could respond to God this week?
