

DANIEL

Living in Disruption

January 10, 2021

Setting the Stage

Paul Olson

Daniel 1:8-21

Daniel took a step up in courage

Daniel took a step out in confidence

Daniel took a step into his Calling

Front of house/back of house

- Remember that in the midst of all the drama in the front of the house, God is in the back of the house working for our good and His glory.
- Be faithful in the little things as God is preparing you for future things.

Post service questions

1. How have you seen God working in the Back of the House in your life during these difficult times?
2. Other than Covid, are there other disruptions or challenges that you or your family are facing that you need God to show up in?
3. Of the three steps that Daniel took including courage, confidence and calling, what do you think could be your next step?