

The Resilient Church

May 2, 2021

Sharing the Good News

Wes Linde

To be a resilient people (the church), we will need to share the good news of Jesus more often.

“The Gospel is not a way to get people to heaven; it is a way to get people to God. It’s a way of overcoming every obstacle to everlasting joy in God. If we don’t want God above all things, we have not been converted by the Gospel.”

Excuses:

Church services are the best way to reach people

You don’t believe the unreached experience hell when they die

Share you faith, but be friends first

Most people are ‘led to Jesus’ by a close friend

Everyone in my are has already heard

Fear of all kinds or fear of rejection?

Post service questions

1. When was the last time you shared the gospel with someone? What was it like? Was it with a stranger or a friend?
2. Why do you think we don't share the gospel sometimes? What stops you personally from sharing the gospel?
3. What could be a commitment that you can make to Jesus in sharing the gospel more often? What could that look like?